The Work of Discovery to be Resumed To-Day.

A Very Exaggerated Value Placed upon the Results.

The house down on the Jackson farm has been removed to other parts of Wisconsin, we hear, where it will be used for a dwelling. It was a large, two story affair, and cost, we understand, $1,500 to put it up. At Wauwatosa, it was used for a tavern, and, we hear, it served on the last night, and, of course, it passed on the road to its new home. It was a very unpretending house, and yet, we understand, it was the cause of much trouble to the owner, who, we hear, was obliged to pay a good round sum of money, and, we hear, he was obliged to go to the expense of a lawsuit, and, we hear, he was obliged to pay the costs of the suit, and, we hear, he was obliged to pay the costs of the house, and, we hear, he was obliged to pay the costs of the house, and, we hear, he was obliged to pay the costs of the house
